Business History

Business History

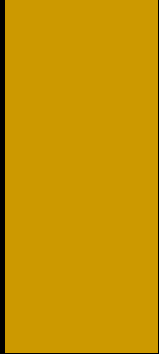

CB GROUP is also known commercially as CONSTRUCTORA CBG and is part of a Corporate Group called CBG HOLDINGS with companies in different business categories.

CBG CONSTRUCTION COMPANY began in 2005 as a Real Estate Development company, with construction projects for condominiums and residential complexes both in the GAM and in the Guanacaste and Central Pacific area. Within this process, CBG serves as an exclusive and internal department of the development company solely focused on its own projects and those of business partners.

After 2009, the company decided to offer its Architecture and Construction services to third parties, and began a development process, building middle-class and luxury homes for many clients, appropriate to the tastes and preferences of each client, as well as projects of apartment and commercial buildings. This business format means that the company specializes in the construction of houses and over time becomes one of the house construction companies, among the most competitive in the country.

CONSTRUCTORA CBG has maintained constant growth, both in the construction of the houses for the clients and as a reliable partner for the construction of real estate development projects of houses and apartments for investors and developers.

Our Clients

Our Clients

Our esteemed clients are both companies, families, investors and individuals who develop, with CONSTRUCTORA CBG, construction projects that are normally of vital importance in their lives and to which we dedicate our greatest effort, dedication and professionalism.

Many years of experience have taught us how to adapt to the tastes and preferences of our clients, tastes that differ from family to family and from project to project, which is why we have very flexible processes and work schemes that make it easier for clients to obtain the finishes and solutions they are looking for.

Some of our important clients are companies or business groups that are Real Estate Developers, with whom CONSTRUCTORA CBG creates long-term relationships, in a “business partner” scheme and a permanent advisory process that comprehensively allows us to incorporate both our design skills as well as construction, marketing, financial management and more.
